The 26th Has Wonderful Record in Recent Battles--76th Now a Depot Division

(By Associated Press)
Washington, Aug. 21.—As a result of allied successes during the last month the battle front in France from Rheims to the North Sea has been reduced in length more than fifty miles. Gen. March told the newspaper men today in his mid-week conference. When the Germans began their last advance the line stretched 250 miles. It is now less than two hundred miles. Gen. March enumerated thirty-two American divisions as having arrived in France. They include the 1st, 2nd, 3rd, 4th, 5th, 6th, 26th and 76th New England Divisions. The Commander of the 36th Division New England which participated in an attack near Chateau Thierry was relieved from his position on the Marne front on July 22nd and is now back of the line for recuperation. The 76th Division now is serving as a depot division and is stationed in a back area.

Repeated Attacks of British Drive Germans Back--Field Marshal Haig Began New Offensive This Morning--Surprise Attack Made on the Ancre River With Good Results--French Continue Their Advance

WILL NOT CALL MEN 18 AND 19

(By Associated Press)
Washington, Aug. 21.—A favorable report was voted today by the House Military Committee on the administration of the man power bill with an amendment providing that youths from eighteen to twenty years of age shall be placed in separate classifications to be called into military service after men from twenty to forty-five.

(By Associated Press)
British Headquarters in France, Aug. 21.—Field Marshal Haig this morning launched an offensive on a front of about ten thousand yards. The high contour between Adifer and Moyenville was the northern zone of attack and Prisseux-Au-Mont the southern landmark of the front. The enemy have lately been withdrawing in order to increase the depth of his defenses.

British Headquarters in France, Aug. 21.—Although the enemy have been vigilantly anticipating an attack he was practically surprised this morning. The heavy night mist increasing to steam-like smoke enabled the British to reach the point of assembling without the chance of detection. The great concourse of tanks manoeuvred into position as quickly as possible. The first advance of the British was made at 5:05 o'clock this morning after a brief crash bombardment. Retaliation was very light at first, no doubt owing to the disability of the Germans seeing the troops in the Havre, and they got on rapidly.

London, Aug. 21.—An attack on a wide front north of the Ancre river was launched by the British forces this morning, says the Official Statement from Field Marshal Haig today. Satisfactory progress is being made, the statement adds. The attack was made without artillery preparation and was completely successful. It was made by the British Third Army under General Byng.

London, Aug. 21.—British forces have captured Courcelles, Achet-Le-Petit, and have reached Moyenville and Beaucourt-Sur-Ancre, a distance of about 1-2 miles. It is reported that they have advanced from two to three miles.

Paris, Aug. 21.—French troops continued their advance along the whole front between the Oise and the Aisne this morning. Carlepoint and Cote have been occupied by the French, according to the official statement issued at the War Office today. After sharp fighting ground has been taken by the French west of Lasigny.

TRAWLER TURNED INTO A RAIDER

Seized by U-Boat and An Armed Crew Placed on Board--Guns Mounted and Trawler Sinks Fishing Fleet

(By Associated Press)
A Canadian Atlantic Port, Aug. 21.—The steam trawler Triumph, fitted with two guns and wireless and manned by 16 Germans from the U-boats which captured her yesterday, is raiding the fishing banks off the Nova Scotia coast. Crews of the schooners sunk by the Triumph have arrived here. Vessels known to have been sunk by the converted raider are the Una P. Saunders of Lunenburg, the Aphist News of Gloucester, Mass., and the Francis J. O'Hara of Boston. Captain Bruce of the Andree said his vessel was held up yesterday afternoon and he and his crew were given ten minutes to leave the ship. The Germans then spiked her with bombs. The raider then bore down upon the Una P. Saunders and the Francis J. O'Hara and sank them. The fishermen say that while making for this port they heard firing and believed other fishing vessels had been sunk. The captain of the O'Hara who landed here today said he was told by the Captain of the submarine that his was one of the U-boats operating on this coast. "We intend to destroy the fishing fleet," the German Commander said.

An Atlantic Port, Aug. 21.—A German submarine late yesterday seized the big fishing trawler "Triumph." The crew, who have reached the shore safely, said they believed the Germans intended to use the trawler as a raider or supply ship. The fishermen reported that the U-boat was playing havoc with the fleet on the fishing banks. The Triumph was halted by the U-boat on the banks and the crew permitted to take to the dories. The fishermen said that the trawler was still afloat when they last saw her. An armed guard of Germans had been placed aboard and no preparations were being made to sink the ship. The Triumph is owned by a Canadian Fisheries Company.

JUST DAVID

By ELEANOR H. PORTER

Author of "Pollyanna"

Ten year old David and his father (a famous violinist) lived on a mountain, with the woods, the wild things, and their two violins. Then a change came and David was left to the care of gruff farmer folk in whom the warmth of kindness was buried deep. But "Just David" brought music and sunshine into many lives and played a part in a very pretty romance.

GERMANS GIVING GROUND ALONG THE ENTIRE LINE

(By Associated Press)

From the Somme to the Belgian border the German army in various important sectors are being put to a task by the French and British, and this task borders ill for the Germans who nowhere have been able to withstand the pressure of the allied forces.

Northwest of Soissons from the Aisne to the Oise and north of the Oise to Reims, in the Aisne sector and northward to the famous Lys sector the Germans have everywhere been forced to fall back under the pressure.

In a new offensive Gen. Mangin in command of the French forces over a front of fifteen and a half miles, from Reims to the Oise river near Soissons, the French have in a bitter fight advanced their line, and everywhere made progress, in some places to a depth of over two miles, and have returned to French possessions numerous villages, farms, etc. Back of the line 3,000 prisoners have already been herded into the pens. At last reports the French were hard at the job keeping all of their gains.

Along the Scarpe river east of Arras Field Marshal Haig has kept up his harassing tactics against the Germans who have been compelled to fall back. The British have taken the village of Fampous. Although Haig claims only a slight forward movement, the Germans have, however, been driven back to virtually to the old battle front they occupied in December 1917.

North of the Lys salient, the British north of Merville have taken two villages and some farms. The report also stated that the forward movement is well under way and the British are already astride the road to Belais.

Taken as a whole the new victories of the allied troops have been very important. The advance of the French northwest of Soissons toward Lassigny and it seems likely that the Germans between the Somme and Oise rivers must give up their present positions and retire. Indeed it seems that the information points to the retreat from the Vesle river also.

The Germans are still stubbornly contesting with the British for the village of Chaulnes and north to Reims. With the capture of Beauvergne, their power to increase pressure on the battle line continues.

There has been little of importance on any of the other fronts.

SIXTY PRUSSIAN SURRENDER TO YANKEES

With the American Army on the Vesle front, Aug. 20 (Associated Press)—Sixty Prussians have been taken prisoners by the Americans near Flenette, north of Flenette, without either side firing a shot. The Prussians were machine-gunners and all that remained of a company which had been in line less than a month. American detachments went out a few nights ago, the location of the machine gun positions having been reported by a prisoner. The intelligence officer who questioned the Prussians asserted that they nearly all had agreed to surrender at the slightest opportunity. The Americans who took the prisoners do not claim any credit for the capture, declaring that the Prussians virtually deserted their posts. A prisoner said he believed that if the line got back to German proper the fighting spirit of the German soldiers would be eliminated.

PACIFISTS TO BLOCK MAN- POWER BILL

Washington Aug. 20—Pacifists are trying to hamstring the Administration man-power bill, just as they tried to defeat the original conscription act. They are centering their opposition on the provision to lower the minimum age below twenty-one years, notwithstanding the assertion of General Peyton C. March that Allied victory in 1919 depends on assembling all available between the ages of eighteen and forty-five years, inclusive.

The Administration man-power bill can and probably will be enacted, but the bill will be passed only after a fight, in which President Wilson may take a hand.

There are so many members of Congress opposed to drafting men who have not reached their majority, that in Congress declares President Wilson

GUNNER HAS MANY WOUNDS

Baltimore, Aug. 20—Wounded in fifteen different places by fragments of a German shell, which struck near the gun pit where he was busy sending shells over into the German trenches about the middle of last June, Archie Ott, a member of a field artillery company, who has arrived at United States General Hospital at Fort McHenry from France. Ott was stationed back of the front lines near Chateau Thierry when he was injured. A German shell of high caliber exploded several yards from his gun pit and splinters from the shell injured him severely.

Ernest Snyder, an infantryman, who arrived with the same detachment of patients, was wounded in his head, leg, and back by shrapnel in the fighting at Chateau Thierry in June. His skull was crushed and parts had to be removed. A metal plate will be inserted. He reiterated the statement made previously by patients that a number of Germans, most of them mere boys, were captured, chained to the machine guns, which they were supposed to fire at the advancing allied troops.

All of the men are loud in their praise of the work done by the French and English tanks. They declare that the Germans are terror-stricken whenever they see these iron monsters waddling in their direction and retreat in great disorder.

SO. AMERICA GETTING CLOSER TOGETHER

(By Associated Press) Buenos Aires, Aug. 20—The potentialities of the republic of South America are engaging the close attention of the governments of more than one of the great powers as future fields for commercial and industrial activity. The Special British Embassy under Sir Maurice de Bunsen has just visited Brazil, Uruguay, Argentina, Paraguay and Chile on a political and economical mission and an Italian mission with similar objects is now covering the same territory.

Not long ago France sent out a mission under Paulin. The Japanese have shown especial interest in South America, and especially Argentina, as shown by the opening of a branch of the Yokohama Specie Bank. The South African Union has been represented here for several months by a trade commissioner who in a few months has achieved important commercial results. Even the government of Mexico has sent emissaries to Argentina and an increase in trade interchange between the two countries is already noticeable.

It is to the United States, however, that pride of place must be assigned in considering the enterprise displayed in Argentina at least, in the matter of efficacious political and economic propaganda. Before the United States entered the war, circumstances had combined to favor and augment to a phenomenal degree the American commercial relations with Argentina.

Since the entrance of the United States into the war, the Americans have shown no sign of relaxing their determination to expand their commercial institutions are conspicuous and premarce in South America. The branches of three important American banking firms symbols of the rapid advance of American trade with Argentina, which the official statistics of both countries record.

The political prestige of the United States in South America is also maintained by the presence of a strong South Atlantic squadron whose chief, Admiral Sagerlain, has been credited by several local newspapers with possessing many of the essential qualities of a diplomat.

Across the river in Uruguay, the prestige of the United States has been still further augmented by the cordial invitation given by the Washington government to Dr. Bruin, minister of foreign affairs, and candidate for the presidency, to visit the United States as the guest of the American government.

Concord, Aug. 20—Judge Sewall W. Abbott of Wolfboro, who filed as a primary candidate for the Republican nomination for solicitor of Carroll county withdrew today. Ex-Solicitor William J. Britton was the only other Republican candidate. Judge Sewall's withdrawing leaving him a clear field.

Mrs. Amanda Knight, aged 31, of Billerica, who this summer is visiting her son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Zach Knight of North Newport, Me., knit one of a pair of socks for the soldiers in four hours and 17 minutes. It is a record attempt she beat that record by two minutes.

FOILS TAX DODGERS UNDER NEW ACT

Washington, Aug. 20—Corporations which attempt to dodge war taxes by increasing their capital stock to cover surplus and undivided profits were warned today by Internal Revenue Commissioner Igoer that this would be of no avail since the capital actually invested in the business, rather than the amount of outstanding capital stock is the basis for measuring taxable profits.

The commissioner also pointed out that an increase in the amount of capital stock outstanding to cover such items as good will, value of patents, trade marks, copyrights, etc., not previously capitalized, must under the law, be excluded in determining the invested capital of a corporation under the excess profits tax law.

"Corporations should not undertake any reorganization for increase their capital stock to cover items already included in their assets," Mr. Igoer said, "without first assuring themselves that they thoroughly understand the law and regulations pertaining to income and excess profits taxes. No special advantage with respect to taxation should accrue to any business because of its form of organization, whether individual, partnership or corporate. It is believed that any inequities of this character that may have resulted from the operation of the present law will be fully guarded against in the revenue measure now before Congress."

The last reference was understood to be business loans which are not considered invested capital. Igoer has reached the revenue bureau that lawyers and private tax advisers have solicited corporations to employ them to effect changes in organization, which they claim will help the corporations to evade certain taxes.

The capital issues committee had adopted the policy of approving most applications for issuing stock in lieu of dividends.

TO TAKE UP MAN-POWER BILL THURSDAY

(By Associated Press) Washington, Aug. 20—Both senate and house will begin discussion of the man-power bill and the 18 to 20 years, is liable to meet with considerable opposition. The house committee have closed their hearing.

Meanwhile the house and senate today closed their hearing. The bill will be referred to the house with the amendment carried by a vote of the committee 5 to 7 that young men from eighteen to nineteen years be deferred until all of the others are taken. The passage of the bill on Thursday in the Senate, and the House Saturday, is promised by the leaders.

Some Hot Weather Foolishness.

A western newspaper launches a campaign against the vest as an article of wearing apparel for men. It does this on the ground of conservation, which is now receiving so much attention for well known reasons, and on the still broader ground that it is practically useless and therefore unnecessary. With this latter proposition the great majority of men will take positive issue.

In such weather as has prevailed most of the time for the past month, and such as we have for a number of weeks every year, the vest is cumbersome and uncomfortable, but most men know how to find relief at such seasons. They do this by discarding the vest for the time being, and if Dame Fashion sees fit to turn up her nose they permit her to do so and to keep it there as long as she pleases. When weather conditions again call for the vest it is donned to suit the comfort and convenience of the wearer, and until the coming of the next heated season it holds an important place in the wardrobe of the male sex.

It is nonsense to say that the vest is simply ornamental. It is a very useful article of dress in ordinary weather, and particularly in cold weather, when a good solid vest buttoning well up over the chest is one of the very best means of protecting the body against the cold and the winds of fall, winter and spring. The pockets of the vest are extremely handy and the garment is altogether becoming and highly useful in such a climate as this.

The paper mentioned speaks of the elaborateness of the vest of the old days, saying it was designed largely for ornament and to form a gorgeous background for a showy watch-fob. There is some truth in that statement, but the day of special pride in the vest as an article of adornment long since passed and the garment has since been, still is, and will continue to be worn because of its very practical utility. It is well enough to discard the vest in the hottest weather, as thousands of men do every year for the sake of personal comfort and health, and it is quite as proper to put it on again when comfort and health demand it, as they invariably do in this part of the country before the fall season is very far advanced.

In New York during the recent hot spell an agitation was started against the wearing of collars. A "league" was formed to push the innovation, there were "charter members" and all that sort of thing, but it is safe to assume that this was merely an attempt to inject a little humor into life at a time when Old Sol was making life a burden. Yet doing away with collars would be hardly less idiotic than the abandonment of the vest. Both have their uses and both have come to stay, regardless of the shouting that may be raised against them by a multitude of temporary sufferers from excessive heat or any newspaper that seeks to attract attention by inveighing against the waste involved in the manufacture and wearing of waistcoats.

Cities that allow their policemen to dress according to the weather in summer enhance the comfort and efficiency of their forces and set an example that ought to be followed by all municipalities. Since the railroads passed into the control of the government train employees have been granted some privileges in this direction which they never enjoyed before, and the police forces of the country are clearly entitled to the same consideration.

The housing project at Freeman's Point is going forward in a way that is very gratifying to the people of the city and all the men and interests concerned. The illustrated article published in this paper a few days ago has attracted a great deal of attention and called forth many favorable comments on the progress that is being made, not only at Freeman's Point but in this entire district.

Sometimes when an army marches through enemy territory it "lives off the country," and the Navy Department is beginning to suspect that this is what the German U-boats are doing along the Atlantic coast. The seizure of oil and food stuffs from their victims may constitute the "base" which some people think they have on this side of the water.

Those Hampton Beach profiteers are overdoing the thing and, in the long run, they will lose more than they will gain by taking advantage of visitors to the place. Hampton Beach is naturally an attractive resort and it is a short-sighted policy that would permit get-rich-quick schemes of any sort to endanger its prosperity.

Portsmouth, like all cities and towns, has its knockers, but, fortunately, the boosters are in the large majority and the city is going forward and not backward.

Activity in the various New England districts plainly indicates that if politics was ever adjourned it has reconvened.

EDITORIAL COMMENT

"Force Without Stint"

(From the New York World)
An American army of 5,000,000 men is not only a possibility, but a consummation to be achieved with the least possible delay. "Force without stint," "force without limit" is America's watchword.

In Face Of A Certainty

(From the Springfield Union, Rep.)
We might prefer to see our Democratic friends nominate Colonel Gaston, both as a matter of sportsmanship and because we always liked to see the party nominate well qualified men, but as a practical matter it makes very little difference upon whom the choice eventually falls. Calvin Coolidge is as certain to be the next governor as anything is certain in politics, and our interest lies chiefly in the size of his plurality.

Pershing and His Plan

(From the Buffalo Express)
The first American field army has been organized in France. It will be for the present under the direct command of General Pershing. What General Pershing stands for has been thus expressed by General Pershing himself: "Germany can be beaten; Germany must be beaten; Germany will be beaten." In a few months the soldier who embodies that thought will command five or six American field armies. There will be no compromise peace policy from this side of the Atlantic while Pershing commands.

Work Ahead For Congress

(From the Washington Star)
The Congress elected in November will not, unless sooner called, meet until December, 1919—thirteen months, after being chosen. Just as the case looks now a call will be necessary. Opinion is strong, indeed, that the body will meet in extra session in the spring, and begin work on a card which promises to be as crowded as that of the present Congress. And it will be the record of that Congress which will bear directly on the presidential campaign of 1920, and give pointers to party leaders in the preparations of the national platform.

Stand Fast, Everybody!

(From the Washington Post)
The prime consideration now is unconditional surrender. The words in the field and firmness in policy, words that should be inscribed on every bullet and bomb that goes to Germany. The world will be defeated if it suspends hostilities to discuss Germany's ideas of a proper peace. There will be no secure freedom of nations if the Allies do not impose their will on Germany. They must dictate the terms of peace, and Germany must accept what they dictate. If Germany should be treated with the magnanimity that is due to a civilisational enemy the savages in control of that empire would twist the concession into a dagger with which to stab their benefactors.

Bagdad to Berlin via Baku

(From the New York Herald)
Soon the cry may be "Bagdad to Berlin," to judge from the ease with which the British advanced from Mesopotamia to Baku. After traversing Persia by way of Hamadan they reached Resht, on the Caspian Sea, whence they took a steamship for Baku. An anomaly of the situation is that in Baku both the Armenians and the Bolsheviks are fighting the Turks, and the British are co-operating with them while in the north the British are fighting the Bolsheviks.

Despatches reporting this movement add that there has also been an advance of British troops from India through Baluchistan and Persia to Turkestan where they have joined forces with the Turcomans and Bokharans who are fighting the Bolsheviks. This is the reverse of the German dream of an attack on the Indian Empire from the Caucasus and Persia, of which there was much talk in German circles a couple of months ago.

One Way to Restore Peace

(Secretary of State Robert Lansing in the Humanitarian)
The independence of no nation is safe the liberty of no individual is sure, until the military despotism which holds the German people in the hollow of its hand has been made impotent and harmless forever. Appeals to justice to moral obligation, to honor no longer avail with such a Power. There is but one way, way to restore peace to the world and that is by overcoming the physical might of German imperialism by force of arms.

If enthusiasm and ardor can make success sure, then we Americans have no cause for anxiety, no reason to doubt the outcome of the conflict. But enthusiasm and ardor are not all. They must be founded on a profound conviction of the righteousness of our cause and on implicit faith that the God of battles will strengthen the arm of him who fights for the right. In the time of stress and peril, when a man stands face to face with death in its most terrible forms, God will not desert him who puts his trust in him. It is at such a time that the eternal verities will be disclosed. It is then that we realize that existence is more than this life and that over our destinies watches an all-powerful and compassionate God, who will stand amidst the storm of battle unflinching and unafraid. In the bond which thus today unites the democracies of the New World with those of the Old World resides the hope of mankind, the only possible surety to future generations that there will be preserved inviolate those principles of justice which have guided the nations into the paths of progress and of peace.

If this bond of united purpose should be broken, or if the democracies of the earth should fail in their struggle against the military power of Prussia, civilization would be again plunged into that state of darkness and oppression from which it took humanity centuries to emerge into the full light of liberty.

But this bond of union, this bond of democracy, will not be broken, nor will the great liberty-loving nations of this earth be defeated by the barbarous monster which today seeks to crush freedom and impose upon mankind the evils of despotism.

Shame On Boston

(From the Albany Journal)
We had supposed that throughout this country local authorities were co-operating with the Federal Government to suppress all pro-enemy activities, and are thereby assisted by the news printed in a Boston paper, that in that city, on Sunday, Mrs. Rose Pastor Stokes was left unmolested while she harangued a crowd on the Common.

Mrs. Stokes was convicted of violation of the espionage act and sentenced to imprisonment for ten years, but her case was appealed and she is free under bail. Unreformed and unperturbed, she is doing something very similar to that for which she was previously convicted. That is not surprising. Her mental processes are perverted. But it is amazing that no restraint is placed upon her.

She is engaged in Bolshevik propaganda. The Bolsheviks, having cast their lot with Germany and done their worst to deliver Russia to our enemy, are therefore enemies of the United States.

The following excerpt from the harangue delivered by Mrs. Stokes indicates the tone of the whole:

A Socialist Russia with a government of workmen and peasants controlling its destinies, making opportunities free to all peoples, a Russia with its bourgeoisie deprived of increased increment and its capitalists shorn of their possessions, would menace capitalism everywhere. Why do you think we are having intervention in Russia? Intervention is taking place because international capitalism is afraid of international socialism. Because of that intervention there promises no end of the war.

And the mob that heard her adopted a resolution calling for the immediate withdrawal of American troops from Russia, urging our Government to recognize and support the "Russian Soviet republic" and calling on the workers of the United States "to stand by the workers of Russia and their government, because their cause is our cause."

Nobody interfered or protested. Boston ought to be ashamed of it.

Even in New York, where formerly much license was given to perilous agitators, they are now kept under the lid.

We are hoping that there is not another city in the Union in which Mrs. Stokes or any other Bolshevik propagandist will be tolerated.

LETTERS FROM OVERSEAS TO LAWYER SEWALL

Interesting Lines From J. R. Waldron and Dr. W. F. Sewall.

The following extract is from a letter written to Arthur E. Sewall of this city by his law partner, Jeremy R. Waldron, now serving with the American Expeditionary Forces in France.

Mr. Sewall is also in receipt of another letter from his brother, Dr. Millard P. Sewall, a graduate of Portsmouth high school, who has the rank of major and is in charge of a base hospital in France. Since the letter was written his father, a prominent resident of York, has been summoned by death's call.

"Dear Gene—You know that the life we lead at home is going to be much more appreciated by us all when we return. Little things, which formerly we considered necessities of life will henceforth be counted great pleasures and appreciated as such. I have just been in Paris as you will know by the time you get this and ate at the well known rendezvous, which Andy and I go to often. On my return I met Andrew's brother Harry. Probably you remember meeting him in Portsmouth with Andrew. We reunited at some length. It is mighty good to meet someone you know and then, Paul Hurlbert and I were in the same town two weeks but never happened to meet. But that is the fortune of war. It seems mighty strange but Americans are better than Frenchmen here as you will not be surprised. Things are looking very prosperous with the war at this time and I am hoping that they will continue so. My only hope is that I can account for at least one German before it is over. You know I wish to keep my promise with Harry Poyser and carry out his suggestion. Just now I have met up with one Tom Nason, a former Portsmouth resident whom the boys will remember if you do not. He is a corking good fellow and we have had a mighty fine time playing around together. Each evening we meet and talk it all over. You know one of the chief sports over here is deciding the war. I have sat at least a hundred peace tribunals; each one splitting it a different way but each favorable to the Allies and Democracy.

"Well, Old Scout, take care of yourself and remember me to all the friends at home. Your partner, "BERRY."

Dear Father:
I may cheer you up a bit to know that I am safely over here, have been on the front for some weeks now. I have seen part of the show as far up as "No Man's Land" and am safe and sound still. This is a great cause for which we are fighting and we are here and in rapidly increasing numbers gives us the assurance that soon we will have men enough to win up the war, and straighten out the European, and come home again. The censor rules of course prevent writing much news, but let me tell you the Americans have taken hold here and are doing things. They get along well with the French people and are no cowards. I have stood at a point between the fire of both lines and heard the shells singing over head just to get used to the sound. After a few moments one doesn't mind them. In the least, and the experience is worth while. A history of this war is going to be worth while. I trust you are still improving. I've seen my family for 24 hours only in the last year.

CLEMENCEAU LOOKS FOR AN EARLY TRIUMPH

French Premier Says Allies Will Win This Year.

Paris, Aug. 21.—It is the belief of Georges Clemenceau, the French Premier, that a complete triumph will be won during the present year by the arms of the Entente Allies, and that the war will have ended before another year has passed, according to the understanding reached by United States Senator J. Hamilton Lewis of Illinois at remarks of the Premier during a lengthy conversation with him. The gist of the conversation, with the consent of M. Clemenceau, has been given to the Associated Press by Senator Lewis.

Premier Clemenceau paid high tribute to President Wilson as a constructive leader and said he was greatly impressed with Newton D. Baker, the American Secretary of War, as a man of great resource.

The Premier declared that when the American troops arrived uncertainty existed as to whether they could bring their undoubted courage into immediate action after having been trained to a life of peace. The first showing of the American troops had amazed France with their bravery and soldierly perfection, he said.

The Premier declared the work of the American troops on the battlefield did more to terrorize Germany than any other thing the enemy has met. He said France had every confidence now that this war was on the way to immediate victory.

Senator Lewis said Premier Clemenceau gave him messages to President Wilson and the people of the United States.

SHOE STRIKERS CAUSING TROUBLE

(By Associated Press)

Brackton, Mass., Aug. 21.—The entire police force was detailed for duty today to prevent further outbreaks by striking shoe cutters, who attempted last night to keep workmen out of local shoe factories. There was general street fighting but not of a serious nature. Many arrests were made, and the police station was crowded with employees who sought protection claiming to have been warned that they would be hounded if they went back to work. Two cutters were badly beaten this morning while on their way to one of the factories.

SOCIAL FOR THE ENLISTED MEN

Naval Chaplain Talks at the Methodist Vestry.

The social held at the Methodist vestry last evening for the enlisted men proved one of the most pleasant of the series and the large number of men in the service, parishioners and friends in attendance much enjoyed the occasion.

An orchestra of twelve pieces from a ship at the navy yard furnished an excellent concert program and each number was received with marked applause, the efforts of the musicians being much appreciated.

Chaplain Doherty of the ship gave an informal talk along patriotic lines. He also referred to the influence of womanhood on the men in the service, as the good true woman, whether mother, wife or sweetheart, had the opportunity to do so much to help keep up the morale of the men in the uniform and he said women and girls should feel their responsibility and always aim to help keep the men with high ideals.

A portion of the evening was devoted to games and contests, one of these being to see how many names of different states could be gathered in a short time, these to be represented by enlisted men present. Miss Gladys Robinson secured the names of 25 states among those in attendance and P. O. Bruckbacher of Ohio found 13. Miss Robinson was presented with a box of chocolates and Mr. Bruckbacher led the march which followed later.

Other games added to the evening's diversions and made much merriment. After the march hot gingerbread and whipped cream was served by the women of the parish.

The pastor, Rev. Mr. Little, aided in every way to have the social a success and he was ably assisted by the ladies and the evening wound up with a delightful sociability to all present.

APPLES BAKED ON THE TREE

Apples which a New Hampshire man says were actually baked while hanging from their branches, were brought into the Post editorial rooms last night, by R. J. Godfrey of Contoocook.

He said that he had read in the Post of last week of a similar occurrence in Georgia and owing to the fact that his farm in Contoocook is hundreds of miles north of Georgia, he considered his "baked apples" of much more interest.

Mr. Godfrey's farm is called "Cloverdale." He said that one day last week the temperature was 120 degrees and it is evident from the condition of the apples that the heat was terrific. The apples are Baldwins.—Boston Post.

The marriage of Miss Margaret E. Gorman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Gorman, and Robert A. Littman, chief electrician attached to the U. S. S. Montana, occurred on Monday morning at 7:30 o'clock at the Church of the Immaculate Conception, in the presence of a good number of relatives and friends. The marriage service was performed by Rev. Father John Moran.

The bride was attired in a gown of white crepe de chine and wore a tulle veil, caught with a wreath of sweet peas.

Miss Helen G. Kelleher acted as maid of honor and wore white crepe de chine and hat of blue georgette crepe. The best man was Samuel E. Triche.

A wedding reception was held at the home of the bride's parents on Hill street on Tuesday evening and a repast of chicken salad, olives, rolls, ice cream, fancy wafers and coffee served. The bride cut and served the wedding loaf.

The wedding trip was made by automobile to Portland, Me., the going-away gown of the bride being of blue serge with hat of same shade. The bride will remain in this city and later will take up her residence in New York, while her husband is in the service.

OBITUARY

Henry H. Dutton.

The death of Henry H. Dutton, one of the best known of Portsmouth's merchants, occurred at his home on Broad street at five o'clock this morning at the age of 61 years.

Mr. Dutton has been in failing health for several years and his business was obliged to give up his business career and remain at home most of the time. For the past ten days he has been confined to his bed, and grew worse steadily to the end, death being due to arterial hardening.

Henry H. Dutton was born in Craftsbury, Vt., and lived there until the age of 38 years, being engaged in farming. Leaving Craftsbury he came to this city about 25 years ago and purchased the wholesale dairy, produce business of Charles H. Clough, formerly owned by the late William Conlin. Mr. Dutton continued the business at the old stand at the corner of State and Pleasant streets and about 15 years ago moved to the Pierce block on High street where he has conducted the wholesale dairy produce business since. Mr. Dutton was one of the oldest of the present day local merchants as regards years in business and met with much success.

He married Jeanette P. Lyon of Craftsbury, Vt., the marriage of the couple occurring about 47 years ago. Some 13 years ago Mr. Dutton lost his sight, which had been gradually failing, but under the great affliction with his optimistic and genial nature he bore up wonderfully, and was ever

Don't Trust a Quack Doctor

You wouldn't put your health in the hands of a natural born untrained doctor.

You wouldn't want your teeth filled by a correspondence school dentist!

And you don't want your battery cared for by an untrained man—even if he says he knows all about batteries.

Doctoring batteries is a profession with us—we are trained battery experts, and we recognize and treat all of the common battery ills.

Your battery ought to be tested—and you ought also to learn about Threaded Rubber Insulation—the most important battery improvement in years.

the same pleasant, kindly man as before this affliction came.

He was a member of the North Congregational church and a constant attendant until his health became impaired. At one time he was a warden of that parish. To his home and family he was devoted, a man of fine principles, who held the friendship and respect of the entire community and his death is a distinct loss to our city.

Mr. Dutton was a member of St. Andrew's Masonic lodge, being a 3rd degree mason. He was also a member of Osgood Lodge, I. O. O. F.

He is survived by his devoted wife and four children. Mrs. Percy J. Davis of Waltham, Mass., Mrs. John C. Bachelier of Leominster, Mass., Julius M. Dutton, who was associated with his father in the business, and Harold L. Dutton, who is with the national army in France.

Washington, Aug. 20.—Deceptive arguments used in the past by the German Junkers to mislead the people are summarized by the Hamburg Echo in its issue of Aug. 12, with the comment, "The German people are now paying for all of this."

A State Department despatch today quotes the German paper as saying: "Events of the last week have a deep significance for the nation and its rulers. The following Pan-German arguments deceive themselves and others:

The Americans are bluffing and will never declare war.

If the war is declared America is arming itself against Japan and will not send soldiers to Europe.

That the submarine would blockade France.

The Atlantic further increased their great lead in the Sunset league on Tuesday evening when they defeated the Y. M. C. A. 10 to 2. The Y. M. C. A. had them with out a score until the fourth inning when they tied the score and in the fifth on a combination of hits and poor fielding they scored seven runs. After that it was just a procession.

Opening inning with two runs, but the Y. M. C. A. took the lead in the third with the extent of their scoring. Elche pitched good ball for the fourth inning when they tied the score, but in the fifth they got to him for three clean singles which combined with a pass started Elche. McLeod took his place in the fifth but he promptly filled the bases with passes and then Pierrotti met one for two bases into the tennis courts.

Phillips played a great game in left field getting six out, and dropping one that was the easiest of the game. His catch of Pierrotti's long drive in the third was a feature catch.

The Y. M. C. A. started with Parent throwing Sorrell's grounder over Dameron's head, he went to third on a wild pitch and scored on another wild throw. Thompson fanned. Smith drew a pass and was safe when Silva threw Phillips' grounder wide to Sweett at second for a force out. Pagel singled but Smith was held at third. Pagel stole second and Smith in attempting to score on the throw down was called at the plate by Parent's return to the plate. McWilliams hit through Parent and Phillips scored. Cragen was out to Dameron. Although Parent threw the first man up got a pass he did not score and they failed to score until the fourth when after Kincaid drew a pass Dameron hit a sharp one at Elche who broke it and had time to force Kincaid at second but his throw was wild and Kincaid went on to third and he scored on Swasey's sacrifice fly to Phillips. Brackett flied to Phillips and Silva singled scoring Dameron.

In the seventh they broke up the game with seven runs Pierrotti opening with a single. Parent walked. Sweett singled to left and Phillips' throw in had Pierrotti at the plate but Smith dropped the ball. Kincaid was thrown out and Dameron hit to McWilliams who tried to get Parent at the plate but he was too fast for him. Swasey flied to Pagel and Brackett singled to left scoring Sweett and Dameron. McLeod went in here and he passed Silva and Pierrotti and then Pierrotti up for the second time in the inning smashed one to the right field tennis courts for two bases clearing up. They got one more run in the sixth.

In the third Thompson opened with a long drive to left that looked good for a home run but Kincaid by fast fielding held him at second, but he

NAVY IS NOW A DUSTY SAHARA

The navy is now "bone dry." Not even one little trickle will be allowed sailor throats. No naval officer or enlisted man may have a drink, unless it be to save his life. Even then a regularly licensed physician or medical officer of the United States will have to administer the saving potion.

A sweeping order was issued by Secretary Daniels on Monday extending throughout the country the regulations against selling or serving intoxicating liquor to members of the naval forces. Hereafter it will be unlawful even to give a drink to a sailor anywhere in America. The rule, as laid down by Secretary Daniels, applies with full force to gatherings in private homes, and persons violating the regulations are subjected to severe penalties. Following is the text of the order:

"Outside of said zones (restricted zones around naval camps and stations), alcoholic liquor, including beer, ale and wine, either alone or with any other article, shall not, directly or indirectly, be sold, bartered, given, served or knowingly delivered to any officer or member of the naval forces within the United States, their territories or possessions, or any place under their control, except when administered for medical purposes by or under the direction of a regularly licensed physician or medical officer of the United States."

BOARD OF REGISTRARS.

The Board of Registrars will be in session at City Hall on the following dates, August 13, 16, 20, 23, 27, and 31, from 9 to 12 a. m. 2 to 5 and 7 to 9 p. m. to prepare checklists for the Primary Election of September 2, 1918. Also on election morning from 8 to 11 to grant certificates to such legal voters whose names may have been omitted from the lists.

AUTO TURNS TURTLE ON SAGAMORE RD.

An automobile owned and driven by James Hesden of Dover, and having as a passenger his son Daniel Redden, turned turtle on the Sagamore Road about ten o'clock last evening and the young man was badly injured.

The car was making the turn to come down the hill when it shot over too far and overturned, both father and son being pinned underneath. Fortunately Daniel Redden was coming up the hill and seeing the accident stopped his car and with a companion lifted the car from the two people under it.

They then took both of them to the Portsmouth Hospital where Dr. Hef's finger was called and he found that the father had escaped with a few cuts and bruises while the boy had a fracture of his left arm. The father was able after having his injuries dressed to return to his home in Dover but the lad was kept at the hospital.

HEAVY FIGHTING EXPECTED IN SIBERIA

Vladivostok, Aug. 16.—(Associated Press)—General Dietrich, the commander of the Czech-Slovak forces, in pointing out the great odds his troops are facing, estimated the enemy strength at 40,000 men, with 70 guns and two hundred machine guns. The status of the Czech-Slovak forces in Transbaikalia is unknown, he said, but it certainly must be desperate. To attack the object sought by the Entente Allied governments, a substantial force must be sent to the Manchurian front.

Dr. Yacimir Spack, a member of the Czech-Slovak National Council, has left for Washington to acquaint Prof. T. G. Masaryk, the president of the council, with the situation of the Czech-Slovak forces. Dr. Spack told the correspondent that the decision of Professor Masaryk as to whether they shall proceed to France, which is their ambition, or stay in Russia to fight the enemy, if given adequate support. Opinion on all sides appears to be that the Allied governments are underestimating the magnitude of the task of liberating the Czech-Slovak forces and do not realize the necessity of actual warfare against superior numbers.

In the absence of artillery the British have equipped two divisions with guns from a cruiser and sent them to the Ussuri front.

CAMPAIGNING AGAINST GYPSY

Concord, Aug. 20.—The moth suppression work of the department of agriculture has completed preparations for further colonization of one of the valuable enemies of the gypsy moth. This particular parasite is a large beetle, imported from Europe several years ago. It has already been colonized through southern New Hampshire and has been giving good account of itself.

Arrangements have now been made by which colonies will later be liberated into the northern area inhabited by the gipsy. In the laboratory at Durham, a special cage has been built for handling collections of the beetle. Successful collections have been made at various points in the southern part of the state. The cage now contains over 1,500 of the beetles and their larvae. From this breeding cage it is expected that large numbers will be available to colonize new areas the coming season.

Careful inspection by the moth department has disclosed the fact that another of the foreign parasites of the gipsy, which the department has liberated, is thriving. This latter parasite is an exceedingly small insect which attacks the egg of the gipsy moth. It was colonized a year ago in towns south and east of Lake Winnepesaukee and has survived last winter's low temperature. Specimens of the parasite have now been recovered in living and healthy condition. It has been found, also, to be spreading into other towns.

This parasite like the one first mentioned, offers no danger whatever to plant life. Neither of them can exist on anything except an insect host.

Throughout the spring and early summer months the moth department maintained thorough inspection of the towns that constitute the northern border of the gipsy moth areas. In these towns careful work was done last fall in hunting out and eradicating gipsy moth egg masses. An accurate record of all such places was maintained and in each of the more important places surrounding trees were banded with tanglefoot. In order to detect caterpillars that might come from any egg masses overlooked. In the majority of places, no caterpillars were found, indicating that the work of suppression had been successful.

There has also been prepared and placed in the office of the department of agriculture in the state house a large map showing the extent of the work done in the state during the last three years. It is the wish of the commissioner that all persons interested in the control and suppression of the insect pest which infests our state, or who may be suffering financially therefrom, should call or send to the office and receive the aid the department may be able to render in removing the trouble, also one may write to Prof. W. C. O'Rune, Durham, entomologist for the department, who will give personal attention to all requests sent him.

WARNING POSTERS IN HANDS OF POLICE Pictures Must Not Be Taken of Places Connected With National Defence.

Chief of Police Hurley has received posters from the Navy Department, warning persons not to take photographs of vessels, dockyards, piers, wireless stations or any other places connected with the national defence. They have been put up in conspicuous places along the water front. There is a fine and imprisonment under the terms of the espionage act for its violation.

The poster reads as follows:

Notice to the Public.
You are hereby notified that anyone found photographing a vessel, dockyard, pier, wireless station, or any other place connected with the national defence, or publishing or reproducing the same without permission from the proper authorities may be subjected to fine and imprisonment under the terms of the espionage act.

By order of the
SECRETARY OF THE NAVY.

DR. ROBERTS GETS ARMY APPOINTMENT

Was Medical Referee of Strafford County and Draft Examiner.

Dr. W. J. Roberts of Rochester, medical referee of Strafford County and a member of the local draft board and of the medical board caring for the examination of registrants, announced on Tuesday morning that he had tendered his resignation from all offices. It will take effect at once in connection with the draft activities, and when his successor is appointed, to the county office. This latter appointment will probably be made by the governor and council at their meeting September 3rd.

This action followed his official notification from Washington that he had successfully passed the examination for the United States Naval Reserve Corps and making known his commission as first lieutenant in the medical corps. He will undoubtedly be called to active service in October, and until that time will continue his practice in Rochester and vicinity.

INDICTED FISH MEN REDEASED ON BAIL.

Durham, Aug. 20.—Nine of the Boston financiers indicted in the Suffolk county's sweeping probe of the Bay State Fishing Company appeared in the superior court yesterday, pleaded not guilty to the 15 counts of the indictment and were bailed in $2000 each. Galen L. Stone of Hayden, Stone & Co., and Frederick Dunham appeared at noon and the following appeared before Judge Hildesbeck at 3 o'clock: William R. Cox, Ephraim N. Cook, William F. McKeon, Olin G. Parker, Samuel P. McIntyre, Jr., Walter R. Smith and William E. Curran.

On recommendation of Asst. Dist. Atty. Webster, Ernest A. James, treasurer of the Bay State Fishing Company, and a defendant who had previously been arraigned, was accepted as surety for these. Others of the 30 indicted who have been arraigned are: Arthur, Walworth, Ernest A. James, H. H. Sawyer, William Stoddard, Byron H. McArthur, John Newburg, Charles Foley, Harvey C. Daley, Edward J. Converse, Robert Campbell, Herbert A. Rich, Winfield S. Kendrick, Joseph A. Itten, Herbert P. Phillips, Samuel Atwood, Jr., and Fred G. Phillips.

F. Monroe Dyer, organizer of the Bay State Fishing Company and the six other defendants as yet not arraigned, will appear in court at their convenience within a week, to be arraigned, plead and furnish bail.

Huddleston, the Unabashed

(From the New York Sun)
Returns from the Democratic primaries indicate that politics has not adjourned for George Huddleston. The representative from Alabama District has been renominated, although he had the distinction, doubtful or otherwise, of having his candidacy opposed by the President of the United States, who recently made public the following statement:

I do not feel at liberty to make any discrimination between candidates equally loyal, but I think I am justified in saying that Mr. Huddleston's record proves him in every way an opponent of the Administration.

At all events, this Alabama representative, who did not quit the field after the manner of Clayton of Texas has been renominated, and doubtless will be reelected. What the World called "a daring venture" in the case of Vanderman is in the case of Huddleston what the world very likely will term as a calamity. If the President's opposition to Vanderman, a senator, caused Mr. Wilson to "risk his prestige as a world statesman," as the World professed to believe, what will this World think of the President's failure to defeat a mere representative?

We beg to reassure our perturbed neighbors. There are just offices in Tibet, hamlets in Peru and literary gymnasiums in Siberia which will never know that the President has risked his "prestige as a world statesman" by his opposition to Vanderman and his failure to keep Huddleston at home. After all the Vandermans and the Huddlestons matter little now. They can do no harm in Congress, and if their people at home wish to keep on electing them, the shame is not the President's. Mr. Wilson need have no fear and no regret except that he tried in politics after he had announced that politics were adjourned.

Baby Carriages AND Strollers

The first of the season we found it difficult to supply the demand for carriages and strollers but recently we have been more fortunate and have received large shipments and have a most attractive supply. They are built for baby's comfort and mother's convenience. It will be for your own interest to see this splendid showing.

It seems absolutely certain that the prices will be even higher next season and it would seem a most sensible plan to buy now and therefore be prepared for that time to come.

Nothing is too good for the baby and we wish we might have the pleasure of making you satisfied with a good-looking and well made carriage.

SIXTY GOVERNMENT HOUSES FOR KITTELY

Government Commandeers Cook Land— Will Rush Work

The U. S. Department of labor has refused to accept the price fixed on the Cook property in Kittery and will at once commandeer it. Attorney Dana of Portland started legal proceedings on Tuesday. The land has been surveyed and there will be no delay in the matter of rushing work. Streets have been laid out and all preliminary work started. Contracts will be made at the earliest date for the immediate construction of 60 houses for navy yard workmen. This is the first big move for a bigger and busier Kittery. It is now up to the citizens of the town to put their shoulders to the wheel and help. The completion of these new homes should be followed by more building. The plans call for brick and wood construction houses and an effort will be made to have them ready for occupancy within three months.

BOLD HOUSE ROBBERY AT JENNESS BEACH

Thieves in Daylight Get Away With Much Valuable Jewelry.

The house thieves who have been very active in and about this city of late extended their work to Jenness Beach on Tuesday and made a clean-up of valuables estimated at $175. The job was a bold one and carried out in daylight at the cottage of Mrs. Alice Keepers, located on the Cable road.

The robbery occurred between 2.30 and 3.30 and like other house breaks the robbers were not seen about the place and they completely disappeared from the neighborhood. The thieves carried away diamond stick pins, wrist watches, gold cross and chains, several pairs of cuff links, gold watches and rings. The jewelry was the property of R. A. McCann and another party who were living at the Keepers' place for the summer. The family evidently had been watched by the thieves as the work was carried out between 2.30 and 3.30 while the inmates of the home took a walk to the beach close by.

A map was used to break the glass in a bathroom window which the thieves entered, and they left by the front door.

The local police were notified, also Sheriff Spinnery. Deputy Sheriff W. B. Shaw went to the scene and up to today he had discovered no trace of the thieves.

It is the opinion that an automobile is used in the work of these men, who have so long terrorized this locality in house thieving.
